1. Let's see: the parties requested a conference before trial and the Court set one for April 18. Now I learn on April 10 that there are only five (5) days between now and the May 9 start of trial that they are available, including the day before trial. Because the parties have not withdrawn their request for a

Re: Global Association of Risk Management Professionals, Inc. v. Global Institute of Financial Professionals, Case No. 21-CV-5207 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

Defendant Global Institute of Financial Professionals requests, with consent of plaintiff Global Association of Risk Professionals, that the Court reschedule the conference in the above-referenced matter that is set for April 18, 2023 at 3:00 p.m. A bench trial in this case is scheduled to begin Tuesday May 9, though we note from the Court's Order entered April 5 that the start date may be impacted by a criminal trial the week before.

The adjournment is requested because I will be out of town April 18 and 19 presiding over a conference and board retreat for a legal organization of which I am the president. This is the first request to reschedule this conference. For the Court's convenience, following are black-out dates when the parties are not available: April 11-14, 17-19, April 26-28 and May 1-May 5.

The parties also request leave for attorneys Yue "Robert" Xu and Sean Garrison to participate in the conference telephonically.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy J. Mertzel
